

Financing of solar and energy efficiency through credit union partnerships with the NW Energy Coalition!

Credit Union Partnerships

The NW Energy Coalition is partnering with Generations Credit Union and Puget Sound Cooperative Credit Union to expand solar financing in the Northwest. Homeowners interested in solar or energy efficiency financing - and residing outside of Washington State (where they are already eligible) - can become an individual member of the Coalition and thereby become eligible for loans from these institutions:

- Generations Credit Union

About the Coalition

If you care about clean and affordable energy, join the NW Energy Coalition today! The Coalition is an alliance of over 100 members in the Northwest that include environmental, consumer, civic, and human service organizations; progressive utilities; energy efficiency and renewable energy businesses, and many more individuals. The Coalition's diverse and active membership makes it one of the Northwest's most influential public-interest voices on energy policy. The NW Energy Coalition and its members advocate a clean and affordable energy future for the region based on:

- Meeting all new energy demand with energy efficiency and new renewable resources.
- Full and fair accounting for the environmental effects of energy decisions.
- Protecting and restoring the fish and wildlife of the Columbia River Basin.
- Consumer and low-income protection.
- Informed public involvement in building a clean and affordable energy future.

Individual Membership - $40
